Miller & Rhoads

Excellent Bargains Are Scheduled For TO-DAY!

Reason is, that broken lots and odds and ends of goods all over the house are classed as "REMNANTS," and for to-day's selling they have been gathered together and priced accordingly.

TO-DAY'S SPECIAL BARGAINS, in addition to our usual quota of Remnants of Dress Fabrics, Silks, Linens, Wash Materials, etc., consist of some very attractive items in-

SHIRTWAISTS, HOSIERY, GLOVES, MEN'S GOODS. WOMEN'S SWEATERS. ART GOODS, FLOOR COVERINGS, COUCH HAMMOCKS. PORCH SWINGS, ETC., ETC.

The above and other sections furnish many good bargain reasons for visiting this store TO-DAY. Come early and look for the counters where the reduced goods are on sale.

MILLER & RHOADS.

MAY WANT WELCH MAYOR APPROVES ON MURDER CHARGE MANY NEW LAWS

and Description of Man Under Arrest Here.

David Welch, the umbrella mender, icing the grand jury on the charge of assaulting with an iron ban tions and attempting to rob A. Marks, a Seventeenth Street clothing merchant, quire property along a number of may be wanted in Boston for murder. Police Werner yesterday received a letter from the Boston police asking that a full description and photograph of Welch be sent.

In view of the Virginia law that prisoner cannot be photographed unhe has been convicted of a crime, is not likely that a picture of him will be obtained for some time, although I the present charge against him, and stoight that if Welch will submit institution being photographed, it will be done Establis the Boston police. How the shall Streets. once to the Boston police. How the snail Streets, authorities of the latter city learned of Welch's arrest here is not known, nor stable on Adams Street, between Cary the Confederate dead.

Pallowing around the confederate dead.

Welch was arraigned in Po-body and pronounced death due to P. Whitlock, to repair brick store at brain trouble. Twere will be no in. 511 East Broad Street, at a cost of quest.

Boston Police Ask for Picture Signs Ordinances Providing Salary Increases and Relieving

> Southside Electric Co. Mayor Ainslie sent to City Clerk August yesterday, with his approval, the following ordinances and resoluis not likely Int a picture of him cill be obtained for some time, although the has practically confessed his guilt fits present charge against him, and dimitted having served numerous rison terms.

Capitain of Detectives McMahon said that if Welch will submit that if Welch will submit institution.

Establishing the true east line of First Street, between Broad and Mar-

Regulating the sale of ice in the Declaring Wednesday, October 8, a several days ago, he waived legal holiday for employes of the city. Increasing the salaries of city officers There is a sent to the Hustings Court, which does not open until next month.

Horris and Kaufiman Dismissed, George Motris and Sam Kauffman, arrested several days ago by Detective-Sergeants Wiley and Kellam on the charge of operating a gambling room in Stumpf's Hotel, were dismissed vestereday morning in Police Court, Witnesses the officers had hoped to locate could not be found.

Increasing the salaries of city officers and employes as follows: Employes of the City. Street Cleaning Department, to $2.25 a day; baillift of the Hustings Court, to $7.50 a year; plumbing inspector, to $1,200 a year; chief anitary officers, to $1,000 a year; five assistant sanitary officers, to $1,000 a year; and commonwealth's Attorney, of Hustings Court, Part II., to $1,000 a year.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO HELP DAN CUPID

And, of course, Mamma has to stall a little, casting of daughter into outer larkness by telegram at first, only to clear has listed twenty four hours.

And Mrs. Gill, the unwavering friend of youthful love and the enemy of firential sternness, just smiles and anys.

Bless you, my children. I'm glad to have had a hand in starting you on the right road.

Colonel Murphy's idea in conducting the essay contest is to have set forth in concrete language various schemes to promote the interest of Virginia and to advance her material prosperity. All essays submitted in the contest must be in the hands of President Cooke by September 27, in order that they may be read and judged before the October meeting of the association being prevented from attending by pressure of business matters. Indications given to President C. R. Cooke point to a successful session in Richmond and a well-attended gathering of the scribes.

Colonel Murphy's idea in conducting the essay contest is to have set forth in concrete language various schemes to promote the interest of Virginia and to advance her material prosperity. All essays submitted in the contest must be in the hands of President Cooke by September 27, in order that they may be read and judged before the October meeting of the association at Munt Elliott Springs this summer, many members of the association at Munt Elliott Springs this summer, many members of the association being prevented from attending by pressure of business matters. Indications given to President C. R. Cooke point to a successful session in Richmond and a well-attended gathering of the scrotage of the summer, many members of the association at Munt Elliott Springs this summer, many members of the association being prevented from attending by pressure of business matters. Indications given to President C. R. Cooke point to a successful session in Richmond and a well-attended gathering of the scrotage of the scrotage of the summer.

RICHMOND

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY OR POSTAL SAVINGS FUNDS

MURPHY'S GUESTS

e capital. Unless established customs are broken, Monday will be rush as are broken, Monday will be rush as are broken, Monday will be rush as are made aware of the telegraph companies are made aware of the excursion for social and business affairs. The Mayor of Richmond the telegraph companies are made aware of the excursion for social and business affairs. The Mayor of Richmond, the president of the Chamber of Commerce and the State Librarian, who have consented to act as judges in the contest, will be Colonel Murphy's runst at the banquet to be given given on Saturday night. The prizes will be formally awarded at the banquet to be given given on Saturday night. The prizes will be formally awarded at the banquet to be given given on Saturday night. The prizes will be formally awarded at the banquet to be given given on Saturday night. The prizes will be formally awarded at the banquet to be given given on Saturday night. The prizes will be formally awarded at the ban-read and judged before the October meeting of the association. The papers are expected to cover a wide range o topics, such as good roads, progressive farming, revision of laws, new forms of government, tax reform, public of government, tax reform, public schools and the development of mining, timber, mineral and shipping resources, Mrs. Catherine M. Weis, of 206 West Marshall Street, yesterday reported to the police that her home had been en-tered and a diamond ring, valued at $75 stolen.

BEGIN WORK SOON

Power Company Authorizes City Committee Shifts Line to In- Twenty-Five Grammar and Two to Proceed Without Waiting for Property Transfer.

$10,000 Ornamental Gateway to Cemetery.

The City Attorney was instructed by the Administrative Board yesterday to prepare an agreement between the city and the Standard Paper Manufacaturing Company for the construction of a wall on property leased by it from the Virginia Callway and Power Company, in furtherance of plans for the widening of the southern approach to the new Mayo Bridge. Upon the execution of this agreement, the City Engineer is instructed to proceed at once with the work of carrying out this imwith the work of carrying out this im-fer made by Vice-President Sitterding, of the power company, the city will buy from it about twenty feet of land on Canal Street extended, at $100 a front foot. With this property and the strip to be obtained from the Standard Paper Manufacturing Company, the city will widen the present twenty-eight foot approach to a width of sixty feet.

Water for Southside.

Water for Southside.

Arrangements for extending water service to South Richmond took another step forward yesterday, with the granting by the Virginia Railway and Power Company of the unabridged right to use a gateway through its dam in extending the big twenty-inch main across the river. The construction of this main has been in progress for more across the river. The construction of this main has been in progress for more than a year.

the following ordinances and resolutions:

Authorizing the City Attorney to acquire property along a number of streets in the northeastern part of the city, preliminary to the installing of the new $54,000 sewer system in that section, money for which has already been appropriated.

Relleving the Richmond Electric Company for a period of ninety days from the provisions of the present electrical ordinances, in so far as these conflict with the operation of its test-

New Gate at Oakwood. New Gate at Oakwood.

The board passed a resolution requesting the architects of the city to submit designs for a granite entrance to Oakwood Cemetery. Designs must be submitted by November 1, 1913, and must be for a gateway not to cost more than $10,000. The structure, it is promust be for a gateway not to cost more than $10,000. The structure, it is pro-vided, shall be "monumental as well as ornamental in design," must occupy the full width of Oakwood Avenue, and Following examination of plans for Following examination of plans for the construction of the new market house on Seventeenth Street, between Main and Franklin Streets, the board directed the clerk to advertise for bids returnable on October 2, for the erection of this structure in accordance with designs submitted by Carneal & Johnston. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids. The plans call for a one-story structure of reinforced concrete, brick and steel, to cost about $43,000.

CHARTERS ISSUED

Bristol,
J. M. Hubbard & Company, Incorporated, Norfolk, Capitol, $2,000 to $10,000.
J. M. Hubbard, president; C. W. Dudley, vice-president; C. L. Young, secretary, all of Norfolk.

ENGRAVING PLANT STAYS

Mrs. Gill's Fall Matrimonial Excursion Leaves for Washington on Monday.

"Cupid's Express," under the kindly direction of Mrs. J. R. Gill, superintendent of the Richmond Male Orphan Asylum, and Cupid's right bower, will pull out of Richmond on Monday morning at 9 o'clock over the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Risilroad for Washington and the marriage license bureau.

Mrs. Gill's Fall Matrimonial excursions to Wirginia Press Association to Award Essay Prizes Here Next Month.

The Virginia Press Association will meet at Murphy's Hotel, at the invitation of Colonel John Murphy, on Friday and Saturday, October 3 and 4, for the purpose of awarding the prizes in the essay contest originated by Colonel Murphy and conducted under the augment of the purpose of the association. All the members of the press association have been asked to submit competitive essays, lastifulors. Washington have become recognized in the matrimonial excursions to twashington have become recognized in the matrimonial excursions to the matrimonial excursions to the matrimage license bureau on the day the excursion is scheduled to reach the expirat. Unless established customs are broken, Monday will be rush day.

these places of safety.

Safety Zones

account in a strong institution like are to be established at the busy corners of the city for the protection of pedestrians from the heavy traffic at these points.

"Self-preservation is the first law of nature," and it is certain that the people at large will be quick to take advantage of

The individual who KNOWS realizes the value of a bank

The American National Bank

We give thousands of depositors the SECURITY and

OF RICHMOND, VIRGINIA.

SERVICE of $1,600,000 CAPITAL and SURPLUS.

Your account is respectfully solicited.

Do YOU realize the importance of applying this same law to the care and protection of your financial condition?

FINAL CHANGE IN ANNEXATION PLAN

clude Highland Park Addition.

NEW GATE FOR OAKWOOD AMENDS WESTERN BOUNDARY COLLEGES OPEN NEXT WEEK

Board Calls for Designs for Places Line Fifty Feet West Private Institutions Are Preof Westmoreland Avenue.

A letter from President Wheel-wright, of the power company, to the board yesterday, gives assurance that his company stands ready to co-operate with the city in carrying out the improvement in question, and authorizes the city to proceed with the work at once pending the formal transfer of the property needed for the widening. In accordance with the offer made by Vice-President Sitterding, of the power company, the city will buy Highland Park Addition, includes a private and the western boundary was placed 150 feet west of Westmoreland Avenue. The amendment adopted last to include Colonial Place in its entirety.

Chairman Powers announced last night that the Annexation Committee would held no more meetings, and that the ordinance would undergo no more changes unless amended by the Coun-cil. The City Engineer was directed to change the line as amended last night. When the changes are incor-porated in the ordinance, it will be printed and distributed to the Council-men. Chairman Peters was requested to call a special meeting of the Com-mon Council, to act on the ordinance as soon as it comes from the printer.

HENRICO SCHOOLS

Superintendent Wright Expects 5,000 Pupils Will Enter for New Session.

Henrico County schools will open londay morning for the new session with an enrollment that will probably Wright, and he predicts one of the most principals will be held for the purpose of arranging the details of the open-To-morrow the new teachers will meet at Mr. Wright's office, at the County Courthouse, to sign their contracts and be assigned to the various schools. At the same time they will be given their supplies and instruc-

Charters were issued by the State additional teacher assigned to Scott's will be graduated next June.

meeting recently and re-elected the following district trustees: Brookland, Dr. W. E. Broaddus; Tuckahoe, W. A. Witherspoon; Highland Park, W. H. Holladay, and Fairfield, J. B. Dowden. Wilburn Jackson was elected to succeed Frank Yahley, resigned, in Varina.

There are fifty-one school buildings and 140 teachers in Henrico County.

The following principals have been assigned to the schools:

Joseph E. Healey, Barton Heights: Paul S. Gill'am, Highland Park; Joseph D. Clements, Highland Springs; Andrew L. Garland, Short Pump; John H. Cato, Jr., Westhampton; Joseph B. Gale, Ful-ton Hill; J. H. Summers, Varina; T. S. Neal, Glendale; Miss Mary Glasgow, Ginter Park; Miss Myrtle Grenels, Dum-barton; Miss Gladys Bell, Glen Allen; Miss Anna Gary, Glen Lea, and Miss Alma Walker, Glen Echo.

Lieutenant Donohoe Resigns The resignation of First Lieutenant S. R. Donohoe, medical corps, Virginia Volunteers, was accepted by Adjutant-General W. W. Sale yesterday. Lieutenant Donohoe gave the pressure of private business as the reason for reparing to Handle Record-Breaking Enrollments.

VACATION AT END FOR 21,000 KIDS

High Schools Begin New Session.

Although the best informed calen dars show that there are at least two dren ended yesterday, when the twenty-five graded and two high schools opened for the session of 1913-14. The sessions this week will be perfunctory, but before the end of next week the classes will be in full swing and the preparatory schools and colleges of the city will have added their quota to the school population. Dr. J. A. C. Chandler, superintendent of schools, was well satisfied yester-day with conditions, which in no way was shifted at the request of the owners or Colonial Place, who pointed out that the line as fixed, while including that the line as fixed, while including time before the latter can be relieved.

The congestion, it was stated, is caused by the erection of nearly 200 new homes in the neighborhood of the new homes in the neighborhood of the school since last session. The influx was greater than anticipated, and it is somewhat of a puzzle for the teachers exceed 5,000. Encouraging reports from each of the five districts have been received by Superintendent A. D. Wright, and he predicts one of the most Guire's University School and Rich-prosperous years in the history of the have made preparations for the comleges will open under the consolida-Several changes have been made in for the last year, is anticipating the the Henrico schools. In Brookland District, the Laurel and Yellow Tavern buildings have been remodeled, and an additional teacher assigned to Scotts.

to use them as drinking glasses, the finger bowls will be continued as im-portant adjuncts of well-served meals. At the Jefferson finger bowls are supplied only when the nature of the meal ordered demands them; not just as a napkin is regularly handed out. "The finger bowl follows an order of fruit as naturally as the first cocktail is followed by a second. If the guest has ordered food that must be touched with the fingers, the waiter, of course, serves the bowl. We never think of handing a guest the finger bowl after in connection with your business, you an order of oysters or peas; the hotel will place your order nowhere else has washrooms for cleaning up.

The sooner you do learn, the b

"Of course, some people will misuse anything. Good waiters make allow-ances for that. When the waiter sees a man who musses up his shirt front and the table linen trying to feed himself French peas from a knife, he brings him soap, a bath towel and tin basin instead of the finger bowl."

HE STARTS TO CLEAN UP PRISONERS' PEN IN COURT

Charles Ostrander, who had been arrested for being drunk, created a furor yesterday morning in Police Court when he started in to "clean up" the prisoners pen. He began his rampage by striking Albert Blimm, a fellow-prisoner, a staggering blow in the face, and in an instant all of the prisoners were in an uproar. Several policemen quickly entered the pen and collared Ostrander, who still showed signs of fight. Justice Crutchfield ordered the rowdy one sent to jail, and quiet was restored.

$14.75 For Medium Weight Suits Worth Up to $32.00

The end is in sight--Sale will continue until Saturday only---and in order to show a fair assortment of patterns until then we have even included some suits that sold at $32.00.

Gans-Rady Company

ARRANGING PLANS ON POLICE FORCE FOR CONVENTION

State Convention, United Daughters of Confederacy, to Meet Here This Month.

Plans for the reception and entertainment of the annual State convention of the United Daughters of the of the Richmond Police Department, Confederacy, which will meet at the including Chief of Police Louis Wer-Jefferson Hotel, September 30 to Oc- ner, will appropriately celebrate their tober 3, are being arranged by Rich- twenty-fifth anniversary October 1 with mond Chapter, United Daughters of a banquet. The event promises to be the Confederacy, which will entertain interesting and elaborate. The "oldthe 200 visiting delegates. The timers" will have as their guests Mayor finance committee of the City Council Ainslie and members of the Board of ings of educational institutions prevailed, but the children will quickly fall into the discipline to which they have been accustomed.

It was impossible to arrive at the total enrollment yesterday, as all of the principals had not reported, but the figures are expected to exceed 20,000. From every school reports of numbers of new scholars were received, and it is expected that at least 2,000 new ones will be enrolled before the end of the week.

There were only two upsets yesterday. One was the delay in getting the other was the congestion at William other was the congestion at William of the work as the congestion at William of the Was the delay in getting the other was the congestion at William of the work of the work of the congestion, it was stated, is Committees Named.

committees Named.

The business sessions of the consumer of the school since last session. The influx was greater than anticipated, and it is somewhat of a puzzle for the teachers to make the proper assignments.

The principal task yesterday was the distribution of books and the assignment of pupils to the various grades. As fast as the classes were farranged, the scholars were sent home for the day. This morning they will again report and lessons will be given out. Very little actual work will be accomplished before Monday, as all of the first three days are considered to be merely preliminary to the year's work.

Before the end of next week all of the various private institutions and colleges will be opened. Richmond College is scheduled to begin the new session September 15; the Medical College of Virginia, September 17; Benadicine College, September 15; McGuire's University School and Richmond Academy, the latter part of the week.

Expect Big Enrollment.

All of these institutions are expecting record-breaking enrollments.

Negro Finally Caught.

James Collier, colored, for whom the police have been looking since last March, was arrested yesterday by Detective Duffy and locked up at the First Police Station. Collier is wanted on the charge of stabbing Marie Taylor, also colored.

THE WEATHER.

Building Permits.

Building permits were issued yestering as follows:

Building permits were issued yestering as follows:

Building permits were issued by the State follows:

Building permits were issued by the State follows:

Addition School. One more teacher has follows:

If he errollment at John Marshall High School will pass the 1,000 mark the capacity of the building. At the Armstrong High In Fairfield District a new building added errollment at High land Park.

In Fairfield District is cutting down expenses by abolishing the wagon service, and one service, and one service, and one provided.

Capital, $25,000, B. M. Kaata, president, Milling School. One more teacher has definition.

In Fairfield District a new building is being erected at Glen Echo. Tuckas the capacity of the building. At the Armstrong High Being Provided.

Capital School. One more teacher has definition.

In Fairfield District a new building is being erected at Glen Echo. Tuckas the building. At the Armstrong High Being Provided.

Capital School. One or teacher has definited in the high School. On 326 Local Observation S P. M. Yesterday.

Hotels Discarding Dining-Room

Temperature 65
Humidity 60
Wind—direction S. E.
Wind—velocity 4
Weather Clear

Bathtubs as Ruinous to

Table Linen.

"I hear the ellite hotels of the Northwest have put the skids under the old-fashioned finger bowl," said a reporter last night to William Poindexter Quale, decoration extraordinary on the Jefferson Hotel "front." "No more splashing of the meat hooks in the cut glass bathtub after the demi-tasse."

"Huh, is that so?" said Mr. Quale, "Yes, indeed, and Atlanta has come to the front and abolished the unsanitary and mussy finger bowl, along with the Western cities. On the grounds that finger bowls are too nolsy, as often used, and inclined to be hard on the dining-room linen when the fingers are introduced into the water too hurriedly, the Hotel Keepers' Association of Minneapolis has condemned the finger bowl to go back to the bush leagues.

Under the proper circumstances the finger bowl is an essential of good service," said Mr. Quale, "As long as the dining public has enough 'culshur' not to use them as drinking glasses, the finger bowls will be continued as important adjuncts of well-served meals. At the Jefferson finger bowls are sup-

MINIATURE ALMANAC. September 12, 1913. HIGH TIDE: Morning....2:

PLUMBERS

The sooner you do learn, the better for you. Why not now? Send us that

WHOLESALE PLUMBING SUPPLIES, 122 South Eighth Street.

61 New Phone 62

'Old-Timers" in Department to Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Anniversary October 1. Rounding out a quarter-century of active police service, seven members

STRIKE-BREAKER DEAD

House, which will be opened October 1. The house will include the usual clubhouse and sufficient room to accommodate six or eight young women. It is a new venture.

Laundering

The Royal Laundry 309-313 North Seventh Street.

Parcel Post

G. M., Co.'s Pearl I. C. (Old Style-Re-dipped)

Roofing Tin is sold under a trade-mark name and is guaranteed.

Gordon Metal Co. 14th and Dock Streets, Richmond, Va.

Teas and Coffees

ties only. Appearances are very deceptive. Our stocks are selected from the finest imports, and are especially adapted to the best trade. Try them, and you will realize the difference, and

McCarthy & Haynes 510 E. Broad Street